

Evening Campfire with the Ghosts of First Church

*Gather with brave souls as we sit around the campfire and wait for the ghosts of First Church past to join us in telling their stories!
We'll start with some hot dogs and smore's roasted over the fire pit on the First Church door yard and see if the likes of Rev. Ebenezer Price, the first pastor of our church, or Samuel French, the master builder of our sanctuary, or Susannah B. Haraden Quimby, wife of Phineas Parkhurst Quimby, or who knows who, shows up!
It will be a chance for us to listen and learn more about our church's history from the voices of those who have come and gone before us.*

Saturday, June 23rd, 7:30 p.m.
First Church front lawn

*This is a free, family oriented event, open to all
