

BELFAST — Lillian (WASSON) Gilpatrick, 96, of Belfast, passed away on April 14, 2017, at the Waldo County General Hospital Hospice Unit. She was born Sept. 11, 1920, in Ossipee, N.H., the daughter of Joseph and Josephine (Colby) Wasson.

Lillian Gilpatrick, was one of our wonderful long term members – she has been a member of First Church for 58 years! Lillian always seemed to have a cheerful countenance about her, seldom to complain. She will be greatly missed.

Lillian was a member of First Church in Belfast since 1958, as well as member of the Eight O'Clock Club. She was a lifetime member of the Eastern Star and a Cub Scout leader when her children were little. Lillian's hobbies included reading, sewing with the group at church, traveling and cooking. One of her greatest joys was her grandchildren.

She was predeceased by both parents; her husband, Leon in 1986; and eight siblings. Lillian is survived by her loving children, Jay Gilpatrick and his wife, Cindy, of Belfast, and Shelley Gilpatrick of Fairfield; her grandchildren, Jennifer Hills and her husband, Steve, Angela Blood and her husband, Brian, and Jason Gilpatrick; her great-grandchildren, Logan, Lindsey, Lauren, Samantha and Joshua; several nieces, nephews and cousins as well as many good friends.
