

Olive Messer, passed away on June 17th 2018.

Olive had been living at Harbor Hill Nursing Center for a number of years.

She had joined First Church in 1992 and lived up on Congress Street.

She was quite active in the church and liked to sew, and made braided rugs which she sold.

Olive was 98 years old when she died.

The family has not asked for a service for her and there is no obituary, so we wanted to share this information with you.

She will be missed. May she rest in the arms of our loving God.
